

Allen Ray Dickens

March 9, 1954 - March 20, 2014

Allen's family was the light of his life. The time he spent with them was most precious to him. Allen enjoyed being outside hunting, fishing, riding four wheelers, and spending time with his family. Allen worked construction for over 30 years, he was the strongest, toughest hardest working man his family ever knew. He was a loving, caring husband, daddy, dad-n-law and papaw. Allen leaves behind to cherish his memory, his loving wife of 39 years, Beverly of the home. Two daughters, Amy Danielle Slater and husband Sam and Michelle Rae McCubbin and husband Bobby. Papaw will forever be missed by his grandbabies, Trenton Sanders of Fountain Lake, Arkansas, Adrianna, Samantha and Samuel Slater, Amie McCubbin, Marissa Dickens and Alecsy Stauffer all of Waldron, Arkansas. Allen is also survived by two brothers, Dean Dickens and Doyle Dickens.

Allen is preceded in death by his parents Raymond and Elgin Dickens and father and mother in law, Marvin and Rosie Cheesman, one son, Nathan Allen Dickens, and two daughters, Alicia Darlene Dickens and Alison Michelle Carol Dickens and one brother, Adell Dickens.

“ Beverly & family, Allen will forever remain in our hearts. He has always been my brother-in-law in my life. He was always considered one of his brothers, instead of an uncle, by my son Loren Dickens as they all just grew up together. There are no words to ease your pain and feelings of loss but know that you are very loved and my prayers are with you each moment of the sad days ahead. With deepest sympathy, Christine Lees
