“ I knew Austin for many years but drifted apart in later years. I will always remember Austin as a man who made everyone feel like his friend. He was kind to so many people. He seem to always be able to make anyone smile. I know he is in a better place, but I am sad because this world now is a little darker with him gone.

“ Pumpkin as I still called him,came down bout 2 weeks ago and stayed the night. He brought old pictures of us when we were kids. We laughed and remembred old stoies and things we did when we were kids. We talked about how my Mom and Dad would have a b-b-q cook out and there would be Rick Blacks family, June Shores family, Dorthey Moore Family,Buddy Shores family and some others. Me and Austin would sneak baby Miller beers out of are dads ice chest and drink us a few..lol and we would get in on are Dads shooting dice for money and they would nickle us in. We had some fun as kids. It was enjoyable to go back to the memories that night he stayed all night with us. Pumpkin always was smiling no matter what or trying to make someone else smile. I'll miss him dearly he was like no he was my 2cd little brother. Always and forever in my heart.
