“ Beverly and Kelli

I am just now aware of Barry's death. I was at my daughter's in Chicago so missed the obit in the Times Record. Barry's smile in greeting was always a day-brightener. Loved looking at your pictures online. I remember attending your lovely December wedding.

*God Bless and comfort you both and your entire family.

I always thought he challenged Ethan, and they always gave one another different and new perspectives. Ethan had told me about visiting with him in town recently and said they "had a real good visit"....He touched a lot of lives and will be missed by SO many! “ Dearest Bebe, Kelli and Jacob,

Our hearts are heavy and saddened in losing our dear Papa Bear. I looked up to him often and wanted his opinion on many big decisions in life. He always made time to sit down and listen, laugh and give loving, fatherly advice. I will miss his jokes and his hugs when he'd come into the station and when I'd see him at Char Broiler. No one could tell a story like Bear! He will be missed everyday and his memory will live in our hearts together. We are holding you all up in prayer and thankful to call Barry our friend.

Love Always, Ang

“ Beverly, Kelli, Jacob and family,

So sorry to hear of your loss. Bear was a fixture in my establishment. I don't know where I'm going to get my jokes from now. We spent many hours trying to sort out all the world's problems from a-z. Politics was one of our favorite subjects and I will really miss his commentary during this current election. Nothing was out of bounds. He would always come in and say "give me another one of those fancy haircuts" and we'd start in where we left off the time before. We spent a lot of time talking about Jacob and Eric, he was so proud of you guys. The "Jacob's roady" t-shirt was one of my all-time favorites and he was proud to wear it. I loved finishing his punch lines because of the look he'd give me when I did and the way he'd make me come sit in his truck to listen to Canadian polka music. We all have these little idiosyncrasies but seldom let others in close enough to see them. I'm glad he let me in, and will greatly miss having him around. Our prayers are with your family during this difficult time.

“ Beverly, Kelli, and Family,
Our thoughts and prayers for Comfort and Peace go out for you all. I will miss seeing Barry and that smile he always had. He always would ask " Do you have everything in control at Winfield"? This usually was followed up by a story that made me laugh. He was a good man and was always concerned about others. He will certainly be missed! I'm here if you need me. Love to all!

“ Beverly, Kelli, Ric, Jacob, Ms. Dean, and the extended family -- My deepest sympathy to you all. I miss him every Sunday. Meet and greet at church just isn't the same. One thing I could count on, his first words were either, "Well, Jacob..." or "How's Michael...". That would lead to each of us catching up on our boys. Not one Sunday passed that they weren't mentioned. He was a special person and we're all going to miss him. My prayers are for your comfort and strength through the coming days.

“ Beverly and Kelli, Dianna and I are so heartbroken over the loss of Barry. Are prayers are with you at this time. We have memories that seem to go back forever. We will always remember Barry rushing over in Little Rock to help us with the flooding in our yard. Even though our homes took different locations after Little Rock, we always enjoyed our visits with you and Barry on trips to Waldron. May God bless you at this time.
