“ Aunt Esther was my father's sister. Since we live in Wyoming and she lived elsewhere, we did not get to know her that well. However, when she and Billy were moving from Washington to Arkansas her daughter Vicki called me to tell me that her parents planned to stop here in Laramie, WY. I had not talked with Vicki, but let me tell you what, it was like we were the best of friends and hadn't talked in a day or two. When Esther and Billy got to our home in Laramie, it was great. I hadn't seen them since I was little, but it was like we were close neighbors. The warmth that they showed was so remarkable. I know she will be missed by everyone who ever came in contact with her and yes, Heaven gained a warm and wonderful person. God Bless!

“ Aunt Esther was a beautiful and sweet woman - she took my family into her home for several weeks when we needed a place to stay. Not only did she not ask questions or become tired of our presence, but she spent valuable personal time teaching me how to crochet and do other crafts. I loved those weeks with her and remember her baskets of yarn throughout the house. She continued to keep up with me and my interest in crocheting even after we left. My thoughts and prayers are with her family and I know she has found peace.

“ I always remember Aunt Esther's beautiful smile. Growing up I remember visiting Aunt Esther in League City. Her house was the first 2 story home I can recall ever being in. The youthful glee of running up and down those stairs was memorable. Simple, yes, but the simple memories are usually the best. Above all I know Aunt Esther loved The Lord . The Word tells us that when we are absent from this body we are present with Him. That makes me smile the most beautiful smile just like my dear Aunt Esther.

“ Aunt Esther was always so joyful and uplifting. Her heart for God was evident to all. I remember a visit in 1985 when I was pregnant with my oldest son. She was so excited to visit Rick Godwins church in San Antonio. It was such a great service and Aunt Esther's enthusiasm for Gods ways were truly contagious! Our loss is Heavens gain!
