“ I cherish your memory

*I felt your hand in the breeze that touched my cheek,
I know your smile as the sunshine warms the day poppy flowers for the change in your pocket.
a walk in the woods, talking about where the deer sleep, and the big one that's near.
I cherish your memory in our favorite swimming holes. hotdogs, camp fires. muddy tracks, and Christmas trees.
buckeyes I carried in my pocket that you brought to me.
your laughter carried on the leaves of a tree.
my heart aches, and then I smile...
oh daddy how I cherish your memory.*

*In loving memory

“ I just want to say thank you so much for everyone's prayers and thoughts during this trying time. dad taught us not to mourn death but to celebrate life. he knew how to live and he taught us that as well. every sunset, and leaf on a tree will remind me of him. he loved the great outdoors and taught us to love it as well. he will be greatly missed.
