“ Tracy, Gina, And Tymber- I am up late because i couldnt sleep and have you guys on my mind for some reason. There is not a day that goes by that I dont think about you. Caroline showed me a picture of cheyenne today that she had taken on her phone and I had to think of your beautiful angel looking down on my kids and keeping them safe. Only God knows what is planned for our lives and our children's lives, and I know she is taking care of my kids until he needs them to come home. Your in my every prayers. Love, Shelly

“ Cheyenne, I only talked to you like once or twice, but I have been thinking of you lately. I kinda wish I was up there with you, but then I remembered of the life I live and that I can help God. I am praying still for your family. I have also actually had a dream of you recently. I was in Geno's and you were the only one there, but you were so nice and we joked and laughed. I wish I could have got to know you in real life. See you later!

“ To the Epperson family I would like to say thank you, thank you for allowing your child grow up with the positive attitude she obviously had, the spirit she exhibited, and the love she fervently showed. That love was for her fellow students, but more for her Jesus. No one can have that radiant a smile unless they know the master. I believe she knew him well. May the veil of grace, mercy and peace enfold each of you. May you continue to embrace his promises and give him joyful thanks for your daughter Cheyenne.

“ My heart goes out the Epperson family and to all of Cheyenne's friends. She was and is so very, very loved and her leaving of this world will never be forgotten. This week has been surreal to me, as I know it has been for so many. And even though I can't answer the why, I hold on to the hope I have through Christ. I know Cheyenne is up there in Heaven, with her beautiful hair and glowing smile and she is happier than she has ever been before. She's probably up there organizing a pep rally, or showing someone how to pass a volleyball.

Our minds and hearts can't fathom it, but one day we will understand when we meet her again. My thoughts and prayers are with you Tracy, Gina, and Tymber.

“Gina, Tracy, and Tymber ? our hearts are hurting for you. No one can take away the pain that you are going through right now. But the cross of Jesus is your assurance that Jesus is there to hold you and carry you through this time of sorrow.

Jesus will help you with this unbearable burden and carry what you cannot carry alone.

As it says in the poem ?Footsteps in the Sand? - Jesus will never leave nor forsake you.

?My precious child, I love you and I would never leave you, During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you.”
