“ Raye, Harold and Family, I remember Clara when I was a young girl riding the school bus with all the Moore kids. She was so pretty and sweet as was all the Moore girls. I used to admire how pretty you all looked at the end of the school day not a hair out of place. I thought you should all be models in magazines. You are all still as beautiful inside and out as you were then. I know you will miss your lovely Clara , it sounds like she stayed the beautiful giving loving lady she was as a young girl and God is enjoying her now. May God Bless all who loved Clara.

“ As a teenager Mrs Taff would take me accross town to learn how to operate sound systems. I would not be where I am in my career without her help. Will be missed here on earth but a very big addition to heaven.

“ This wonderful lady opened her home and cellar to me while I spent hours on end with Tim during those many years of youth. Never a cross word even when deserved, just a lovely smile.
