“ I'm going to miss our weekly, colorful, conversations. Some language not PG 13. We would call each other to keep in touch and talk about friends and family. I was lucky enough to see him and Sandy two months ago while I was in Arkansas. We've been best friends since 7th grade and the memories will last forever.

“ It's been a while since I seen you papa and I have always been the one who sucked at calling, but there has not been a day I haven't thought about you. All the memories I will forever cherish, I cannot forget the love you've always shared a love that was one of a kind and no other granddaughter could ask for better. Wanting to pull my loose tooth out with plyer's, making your famous rootbear floats, always cooking out and having us all come over and swim. I can remember so many wonderful memories that I wish I could go back and feel the vibrant love of our great big family all back together. I'll love you always and forever, as long as til the day I take my last breath, and join you and the rest of the loved ones we have lost.
