After retiring from The Waldron Furniture Factory, Etta had even more time to do the things she enjoyed. As active as Etta was, her family was the highlight of her life. Time spent with each of her grandchildren and great grandchildren was most precious to her. She especially enjoyed every opportunity to make memories with her great great grandson. There was no doubt of the love and care Etta had for her family.

Granny will forever remain in the hearts of her grandchildren: Alishia Cabe and husband Harrell of Waldron, Arkansas, Kandi Williams and husband David of Greenwood, Arkansas and Chad Vaughn and wife Mary of Waldron, Arkansas as well as four great grandchildren: Savanna Thornton and husband Tyler, Marci Aboul-Zelof and husband Marwan, Dustin Williams and Jake Williams and one great great grandson, Cason Thornton. Etta is also survived by one sister, Madie Plum and one brother James Wagner both of Waldron, Arkansas. Etta will be missed by all that knew her and the many whose lives were impacted by her including a host of nieces, nephews, extended family, friends, wonderful neighbors and loved ones.

Etta is preceded in death by her husband of 52 years, Chester (Jake) Vaughn, three sisters: Florence Walker, Zadie Dedmon, and Ada Oliver and two brothers, Walter Wagner and Carel Wagner and son in law, James Yandell.
