“ MAY GOD BE WITH YOU DURING THIS TIME OF SORROW:
Lee moved to Ada in the 3rd Grade and lived around the corner on Kings Row. Neat house. He had a tough childhood with losing his mother at an early age, my mother always tried to be there for him. I remember his Mama Mae from Arkansas who used to make great homemade sugar cookies when she came. Today, I still sorry for the way other children treated him and how he became a better person for it. I tried to call last year to tell him I moved and could not reach him. It was 8 years ago or so I had lunch with him in Jackson, Mississippi and talked about old times. Barry if you read this would you please contact me.

“ I posted earlier with James "Jim" Bryan but only James came out. Our family never knew him as George Lee Daggs III or Lee. We always addressed him as Little Lee even though later in life he towered over his dad.
