“ I didn't know your father well. He and your mother came to the nursing home when I was quitting. However, to me he exuded warmth, like he was a fire of friendliness, cheer and calmness. I am so sorry he has passed. I'm sure his spirit still warms you that kind of essence doesn't leave thank God. I can only imagine what great memories you and your family have of your mother and father if his essence was so strong to me a stranger. May he and your mother always glow in your hearts.
