“ Indeed, I am saddened to learn that you're mourning the loss of your dear love one. However, it saddens our God even more. No doubt, you have many fond memories which will resurface from time to time. And because you do have memories, certainly shows that almighty God has memories as well. Therefore, with full confidence you can take comfort in knowing that he longs to restore perfect life to all those in his memory (Job 14:13-15; Rev 21:3, 4). Please accept my condolences at this most distressing time.

“ Henry was what my Husband called a Rustic. He always had some of the best stories to share about old times. So thankful I was able to visit him and Joyce that last time I was in Waldron. God was using him greatly at that time in his life. Henry would not let Lydia and I leave until he had prayed for us and with us.. May Jesus be with all the family and send the comforter in this time of loss. Love from Aunt Mary.
