“ JR was my Dads brother Marcel. The first real paycheck I ever recieved from working was from JR. This was about 1960. He and JD was stripping cotton on their farm near Plainview Tx. It was hard and dirty work pitching that cotten to the back of the trailer and tromping it down but worth it at pay day.

No one knows farming better than JR. He was a master at his profession all his life. JR had a memory like a computer and retained it through out his life. The family suffers a great loss but heaven recieves a great gain.

Wish I could attend the celebration but is impossible for me to do so.

Love You JR
