“ God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be. so he put His arms around you and whispered 'come with me'. with tearful eyes i watched you and saw you pass away. Although i loved you dearly, i could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, loving hands at rest. God broke my heartto prove to me, He only takes... the BEST..

“ uncle james,you will be truely missed by so many... your love will always stay in our hearts and memories. i know in my heart that you are finally with grandpa, and your brothers and sisters, all sharing our Lords wealth together. there will be no pain, so i shall not be selfish, yet i will just wait for my day to come to be with you all. i apologize, uncle james, for the misleading mistake, that nanna would be waiting on you. God isnt ready for her yet, but im sure to say she will be there soon with you. so, just hang tight and enjoy. keep your eye on Heavens Gates, because Nanna will be coming through, upon our Lords request, to share the happiness with you all. i will continue to pray for that lovely, beautiful day, when i can walk through those Gates, and be with you.
your nephew,
Christopher Godfrey

“ The value of the memories that a person leaves behind can only be measured by the difference it makes in lives of those that carry on and for me that memory is a trip to my first sports card show in Fort Smith when I was about twelve. Thanks Uncle James, I'll never forget.
