“ We are so sad for all of his family and will miss seeing Jim at school picking up and dropping off Christian. No more running into him in Wal-Mart or the grocery store and catching up on the last few weeks. =(
We have nice memories and hope everyone has plenty of these to keep close to their heart in the future.
Jim will be missed.

“ Although i haven't seen our brother very often he will be missed very much. Our thoughts & prayers go out to Jimmy Jr, Christian, Marissa, Tracy, Denise, Dawn, Paul, Cece, Gail, & brothers Tom and Herbie and the rest of our sisters. I do remember the last time he visited my house, he left me with some beautiful & funny memories! He loved to tell his jokes or play jokes on you. I will treasure the pictures i took when he was here in Chicago the last time. I will look at the picture of the hanging toilet paper he hung from the back of his pants, & laugh, cry & remember the good times. He did things just to make you laugh!! He will surely be missed!!!!
Love you Always.....

“ Although the miles had kepted us apart...Our hearts are filled with sadness and you will be greatly missed. "You were the laugh of the party always with a joke or pulling a prank". "You loved to fish, hunt and play hockey", You even got to see the Chicago Blackhawks Championship, Jims favorite team. I will always remember the many great time's we had growing up. The Lord had a better plan for you. He knew you did not want to leave that you loved your family dearly. But,the pain was more than you can bear,So he gently took you by the hand and peacefully gave you wings!

Jim,I know Mom and Dad(Herbert),Brother Sonny (Edward),Sister Jeanette, Gloria,Judy were waiting for you with "Open arms", and what a rejoice that would have been! (You'd be ready with a joke or two.)

"Our Heartleft Sympathy" goes out to Jimmy Jr., Christian, MARRISA, Tom & Tina, Herbie & Annie and the rest of our family.

"I love you Jim", and a part of you will always be with me & my family.

Love to you all,

You Sister,
