

James "Redeye" Earl White

May 29, 1949 - February 7, 2015

James Earl White, better known to most as "Redeye", of Waldron, Arkansas passed from this» life, Saturday, February 7, 2015 in Waldron, Arkansas surrounded by family and friends. Redeye was born May 29, 1949 in Heavener, Oklahoma to Elbert E. White and Ethel P. (Richie) White. He was 65 years, 8 months and 9 days old.

Redeye was a well known professional truck driver. His passion was for the open road and a fast truck. He logged over six million miles. He made a lot of friends and acquired a lot of acquaintances during his life. Those that knew him knew he had a good heart and would give you the shirt off his back. He had a lot of charisma and was always the life of the party where ever he was. He enjoyed life. He also enjoyed hunting, fishing and racing cars. The love of his life was his daughter, Tina. When she was a young girl, she trucked with her Dad. They were inseparable, they were a team.

Redeye leaves behind to cherish his memory, one daughter, Tina White of Barling, Arkansas, a very special friend, Terri Churchill of Waldron, Arkansas, two sisters: Lucille Quails and June White of Poteau, Oklahoma, one brother, Doyle Wayne Ramsey of Washington State. Redeye will be missed by all that knew him and the many whose lives were impacted by him, including a host of nieces, nephews, friends and loved ones.

Redeye was preceded in death by his parents, Albert White and Ethel White Nelson, and one brother, Charles (Red) White.

Redeye's memorial life celebration will be at 1:00 pm, Wednesday, February 11, 2015 at the Duncan Cemetery pavilion in Waldron, Arkansas with Rev. Pat Ray Biggs officiating.
