“ Dear Parker Family... We will miss Jerry stopping by for a visit out at the shop and his funny stories that he always had to tell. He was a man of HONEST & GENUINE character and greatly admired in our community. Always the same smile no matter where or when we saw him. Please know that we are praying for you at this time.

“ A very wise woman told me today that today is the day that we say goodbye, but it's also the day that the angels say hello. Cherish the memories, write down the stories, and find peace in the knowledge that he's in Heaven warming up the mules for the day that you can once again go on a trail ride with your daddy. We love you.
