“ There is a lot of memories. My uncle taught me how to fish, shoot, football, basketball, poker, fight, but most of all he always gave me respect and talk to me and treat me like I was important. He was always excited to see his nieces and nephews. You maybe gone but your memories will last forever. Forever blessed that you were a part of my life.

“ You will be missed,
There are many memories playing football, watching football, teaching you how to play football on my ps2, and my favorite memories of course is staying up on night learning and teaching and watching everyone playing poker.
You will be every missed

“ We are going to miss you!! Days and years may pass without being in touch but memories last forever. The memory that is fondest to me is coming to Arkansas,leaving the world behind for the weekend and staying up all night laughing and playing poker. Rest in peace my friend “ You will be so very missed! There is to many memories to list all of them but the one that sticks out the most to me is playing football outside on thanksgiving and teaching me that girls are stronger than boys even at football and teaching me all the tricks to your favorite game poker.
