“ Joyce was a dear friend and a very dedicated employee. I had the privilege of working with Joyce for 4 1/2 years at Bost in Witcherville. As an employee, she was very dedicated and dependable. She was always one of the first to sign up for trainings that became available. She never called in and was often 15 or 20 minutes early to work and would actually have to wait to clock in. She often said that she didn't "have" to work--that it was her "social outlet" and that we "all felt like family to her". Well, I can sure tell you that we are all missing "one of the family" right now. Joyce, I love you and will miss you very much, Brenda Heydenreich
