

Kelly Jerald Langley

January 6, 1936 - April 1, 2017

Kelly Jerald Langley, 81, passed from this world on Saturday, April 1st, 2017 in Waldron, Arkansas. Kelly was born January 6th, 1936 in Waldron, Arkansas. He was the son of the late Otis Langley and Velvia (Self) Langley of Waldron, Arkansas.

Kelly grew up in Waldron, Arkansas and married the love of his life, Bonita (Richmond) Langley on January 9, 1954, and they were blessed with 3 children and 56 years of marriage during their union. Kelly retired from Petrolane Gas Company in Waldron after 25 years of service there.

Kelly was a simple man, but had such a big spirit. He was full of life, love, and laughter. He was a hard worker who was always willing to help anyone in need at any time. Kelly was a good man with a kind heart, and was liked by everyone that knew him. He loved his wife, children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren dearly. He also loved the Lord and served Him faithfully at the First Church of the Nazarene in Waldron. Kelly loved the Razorbacks, the Dallas Cowboys, milkshakes, cars, and watching old westerns. He leaves behind a rich legacy of laughter and love in the hearts of all of his family and friends.

Kelly is survived by his daughter, Karen Hunt, of Waldron; son, Richmond Langley & wife Kristi, of Greenwood; 4 grandchildren, Nicole Tull, of Waldron;

Jeremy Hunt & wife Kansas of Waldron, Bryce & Brant Langley, of Greenwood; 7 great-grandchildren, Dylan Self, Dakota Tull, Caleb & Logan Tull, Brady, Caden & Kayleigh Hunt all of Waldron.

Kelly is also survived by one sister, Shirley Washenberger of Ft. Smith, Arkansas, as well as many nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Kelly is preceded in death by his son, Kelly Langley, Jr., wife Bonita Langley, and his son-in-law Jerry Hunt.

“Carve your name on hearts, not tombstones. A legacy is etched into the minds of others and the stories they share about you.” ~Shannon Alder

“ I loved seeing Kelly every Sunday with his big smile and warm hug!
His wife, Bonita was my Sunday School teacher and Kelly was in my class. How much I miss both of them. Heaven got back the most in-love couple ever! God bless the family for His comfort. If we are hurting this much, I know they are really needing Him right now!!
