“ Aunt Bill & Family:

I convey to you my deepest sympathy and heartfelt love regarding the loss of L.D. However, as you well know, L.D. is where he has always believed he would be. Words cannot express the deep respect and love I had for him. Both Bill and L.D. were always shining examples of Christianity to both me and my family. I know of no other people more deserving of the rewards of heaven than each of you. Both of you were a goodly part of my growing up and I will forever be grateful of your example of Christlikeness.

Respectfully,

Billy Maxey
