“ Isaiah 25:1~~~O LORD, I will honor and praise your name, for you are my God. You do such wonderful things! You planned them long ago, and now you have accomplished them. Lucille, I was out of town, when your mother went to be with the LORD. Praying the father of eternal love is with all. I love you and your family. Boo

“ To the Gabbards, Durings Lee Ora's time of need, you stepped up made her remaining days here on earth memorable and valuable to Lee Ora. Lee Ora was very proud of her Granddaughter and is looking down from heaven just waiting for the day when you will see her again. No more worries or struggles just happy memories of days gone by. God's Blessing on you and your family during these difficult days.
