

Lorrie M.

May 20, 1970 - August 24, 2009

Lorrie M. Cox, Musician First Class, United States Navy, age 39 of Memphis passed from this life on Monday, August 24, 2009 at the St. Francis Hospital in Bartlett, Tennessee.

She was born May 20, 1970 in Abilene, Kansas to the Dr. John Edward Dunn and Martha Dunn.

Lorrie was an accomplished clarinetist, saxophonist and musician with the United States Navy for the past 18 years. Lorrie was devoted to her family and found time to volunteer with numerous Navy and civilian organizations. She always had time for her family and so many others as well as working on her doctorate at the University of Phoenix.

Lorrie is survived by her loving husband, Adam Cox; one daughter Sydnee Rylee Cox, who was the love of her life; her mother, Martha Dunn of Cheyenne, Wyoming; and one brother Darrell Dunn of Phoenix, Arizona.

Lorrie's funeral service will be held Tuesday, September 1, 2009 at 2:00 p.m. at the Heritage Memorial Funeral Home Chapel with interment with full military honors in the Pilot Prairie Cemetery. Arrangements are entrusted to the Heritage Memorial Funeral Home in Waldron, Arkansas.

Lorrie's pallbearers will be members of the United States Navy Honor Guard. Lorrie's visitation will be 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Sunday, August 30, 2009 and 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. Monday, August 31, 2009.

Her family will receive friends at the Heritage Memorial Funeral Home, Monday evening from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m..

In lieu of flowers the family request that memorials be sent to the Dr. John Edward Dunn Memorial Scholarship in Chadron, Nebraska.

Tribute Wall

KE

“ I miss my friend, my co-volunteer. Lorrie it was a great pleasure to have met and worked with you. We were just getting closer when you departed but I know with your spirit and kind heart you are in a better place. I love you friend

Kerryann - March 11, 2013 at 12:00 AM

JL

“ i never got to meet you here on this earth however somehow i am getting to know you thru your works here...it is 4:31 a.m. on the second anniversary of your rebirth in HEAVEN!!!i will soon be driving to waldron arkansas to purchase one of the saxophones that you played here...your husband wanted to make sure it got into the hands of someone who would appreciate it...i just lost the very same horn that had very deep sentimental value to me. it was given to me by a dr. that truly cared about my career and my life. his name was dr. meeks. please tell him how much he changed my life. lorrie. the more i read about you...the more i like you. you were so loved here and missed. please validate to me somehow from heaven that i am supposed to play your horn. GOD is truly blessing you. AMEN AMEN and AMEN. i know you already know that every note i play ...i play for GOD. i will make sure i get the information out how important is is for us horn players to clean our mouthpieces and goosenecks of our horns.

Jeffrey Dean Lopez - August 24, 2011 at 12:00 AM

CM

“ Mrs. Martha Dunn I never knew any of your Children, But I am sure she was wonderfull and I am sorry to Hear or Read about your Loss. I had orginally Been Looking for an email address or myspace or facebook as you was one of my favorite Rushville Teachers.

Chris Miller - February 09, 2010 at 12:00 AM