“ Paul, or Denver Paul as I knew you, my memories of your family are old ones, the kind I cherish. I knew them as neighbors when you and Brenda were very young, then as business people - they both always had a smile on their faces and a nice word to all. Fine people. Condolences and love, Oleta

“ Just knowing she is with the Lord should be a comfort to the family, but that doesn't take away the pain you are going through. My prayers go out to Paul and the family, that just remembering that she has reached her lifelong goal may ease that pain and give you hope for that great reunion to come. Mike House
