“ Many years have passed since Ray & wife Faye gave me my first job, babysitting their two daughters for 10 cents, while they went to a movie. They taught me to drive a car. Took me on a trip to Arkansas with them. We worked jigsaw puzzles, played cards and went roller skating together. They were such a fun loving couple. I had not seen them for 50 years but their laughter and fun ways have always stayed with me and I know Ray's family will miss him terribly. My sympathy goes out to all of them. Ila Holland Rhodes

Is so hard to give them up. Seems life goes by so fast. It said he worked with your Dad and he was a super nice person. Our prayers are with you.
