“ I just wanted to add that I've known Robert for 14 years. He's called me dummy, stupid, and told me to shut up many times. Also he's slapped me in the gut and poked me in the side all of these 14 years, and yet we were the best of friends - probably because I deserved it all by the way I took pleasure in aggravating him. I miss Robert, but as I said before, we will meet again.

“ Bro. Jerry & Robert loved teasing each other & being silly. We will never forget Robert getting up on stage and singing "Jesus Freak" with Jerry as they shoved back and forth on each other. Also, Robert would often say, "Linda, I'm praying for you. I don't know how you put up with Jerry". We will always remember the fun times we had with Robert, and we know that one day will meet him again in heaven. Paul wrote: "to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord". Our prayers of comfort are extended to friends and family of Robert.

“ Robert could always bring a smile to your face. I don't think that there was anyone he didn't pick on at one time or another. Cooked many a meal for him..and he did love his Ding Dong's. Rest in piece. It won't be the same driving by the sale barn without you on the porch.

“ Everyone's face would light up when Robert would come to greet them, "Sunshine", the most deserving name a person could inherit.
When I last seen Robert he was enjoying himself surrounded by friends, music, and good food (which he so much enjoyed). He was there to honor my father, Gene, who has since passed... Now they are enjoying each other's company forever... He will always be remembered for kindness to others, God Bless the family, and know how lucky you were to have such a special person in your family..... Teresa, Kendel, and of Course Sissy.

“ I became acquainted with Robert when he attended New Life Center. The thing I remember most was that his bible was falling apart and held together with duct tape. What a testimony in itself. I believe he knew Jesus and loved him with his whole heart. I will miss seeing him around and him always teasing me about something! My prayers are with his family. Rest in Peace Robert!
