“ Dear Rhoda and Amy: Please know that my thoughts and prayers have been with you. My best memories of Rose Ann is her playing the piano and singing the old Hinson song, "That I Could Still Go Free" at the Lamb Church with both of you, Robbie, Sheila, and Mildred singing along. That is a beautiful memory I'll always cherish...truly we know today that she is living out the message of that song, free and happy in God's presence.

“ Dear Pastor Jim and Family,
Gerald & I love you and we are praying for you all. Rose Ann meant so much to me that it's hard to find words to describe how she influenced my life. She served God with her whole heart, was a Pillar of the Church, a Mighty Prayer Warrior, a Teacher of the Word, a Spiritual Mother to me, and I love her very much. I will miss her, but look forward to that Great Reunion. I'm sure that she and my Mom are rejoicing together on those streets of gold!
