“ Dear Moore Family, My heart goes out to you, its not right that a parent should have to bury a child and now you wounded heart is broken again. I knew Sharon through the Quadrill, she was always very friendly to me and my daughter. Years ago she loaned Angela some red horse leggins for a queen contest. Please know that Sharon will be missed by all her friends. The last time i talked to Sharon was at your auction, she was smiling and friendly. God bless your family as you try to cope with this tragedy. With Deepest Sympathy

“ I just want to express our deepest sympathy to Sharon's family. I feel as if I knew her. I hate that I didn't get to meet her personally. I do know that she left a great impact on our entire family especially my baby brother, Ronnie!
She brought him joy that he hasn't had in years.
May God place his arms of comfort around you all and give you the strength that only comes from him as you face the days ahead.

“ Sharon was inspiration to me and was always there for me when I needed her to be. She would hold my hand and walk beside me during anything and everything. She would always count me in in everything she done, even though sometimes I shouldn't of got to go. But if I asked she would always tell me to get clothes and we would go burn that highway up. I remember one time she was telling me how she went off and took a road trip and she came across these elk and she got down on her belly and army crawled up to them to get pictures and she got me on the ground with her and we was crawling all over the yard on our bellies acting like we was taking pictures of wild animals. We laughed so hard. But I love her and I always will, she was my other mother and my best friend. And she will be remembered always..

“ Words could never express what Sharon ment to me and my family. She took Kelley under her wing, even titled her "the other mother." She touched our lives and will remain in our hearts forever. I found a card that she had written to Kelley, it was inscribed "ALWAYS STAY FOCUSED AND REACH HIGHER, YOUR DREAMS CAN BE OBTIANED" LOVE YOU ALWAYS...SHARON." I have the assurance that every time Kelley rides, Sharon will be riding with her. You are in our hearts, thoughts, and prayers.
