

Wayne Marion Horn

December 29, 1924 - January 18, 2016

Wayne Marion Horn, beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend went to be with our Lord on Monday, January 18, 2016. Wayne was born in Waltreak, Arkansas, on December 29, 1924, and was 91. Wayne lived his entire life in the Scott County, Arkansas area.

After serving proudly in the Army during World War II, he moved back to Waldron and first worked at Blasingame's Dry Goods. He began his proud, long-term career with Arkansas Valley Electric Cooperative in 1952 and continued until his retirement in 1985. Following retirement, he continued to provide electrical help to those in need, sometimes even charging a few dollars for the materials. He was an active member of the Waldron Church of the Nazarene where, throughout the years, he served on the Board of Trustees and, with his love of music, led the choir and congregational singing. It can be said with confidence that there are likely few people in Scott County to whom Wayne did not give of his time, talents or every vegetable grown in his garden. Wayne grew many items in his acres of garden but the reviews on his corn, peas and watermelons were unsurpassed.

Wayne was a blessing and joy to everyone he met. He was a friend, helper and encouraged all he encountered. Wayne loved the outdoors including hunting and fishing. In his farming operations, he raised cattle, horses, catfish and provided anything the grandkids wanted. He loved road trips, flying to adventuresome places and riding his four-wheeler. In his retirement years, he honed his domino skills and defeated many aspiring champions. He was a true Razorback fan and coached from his stadium seat or living room recliner. He knew no strangers and believed giving to others was a way of reflecting the love and grace of Jesus Christ in his heart and life. His greatest enjoyment and pride was his family.

Wayne Horn is survived by his wife of 67 years, Ethel (Hutchens) Horn; his children and their spouses Ruth and Gary Karraker of Edmond, OK, Mike and Luann Horn of Fayetteville, AR, Phil and Leigh Horn of Ft. Smith, AR, and Trish (Horn) and Roger Farrell of Edmond, OK; grandchildren: Lincoln, Eric (and wife, Lora), Heath, Tanner, Sam, Evan, Nathanael, Kurstin, Lily, Cameron, Collin and Carrie; and great-grandsons Eli and Oliver. He is survived by one sister, Virginia Sizemore, of Conway, Arkansas. He was preceded in death by two grandchildren, Wesley and Kimberly, and siblings Bevie Watson, Vessie Owens, Ule Horn and Betty Blume.

Please join the family in celebrating Wayne Horn's life and faith at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, January 23, at the Church of the Nazarene in Waldron, Arkansas, with private burial at Pilot Prairie Cemetery under the direction of Heritage Memorial Funeral Home. There will be a visitation on Friday, January 22, 2016 from 12:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. at the Heritage Memorial Funeral Home in Waldron, Arkansas where the family will receive friends from 5:00 p.m. until 7:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial donations be made in Wayne's honor to Waldron Church of the Nazarene.

“ I have rode many miles in an old construction truck setting between Wayne and Harold Shuck and to say the least I learned a lot. I have saw this man dripping wet with sweat and yet I have saw him covered in sleet and ice and never a complaint. Putting up power lines or hanging a transformer, do we have enough? Wayne's reply was "worlds-a-plenty". Yes , today Wayne abides in truly a World of Plenty.

“ Trish, Roger, Kurstin, Lily and family: sending our thoughts, hearts and prayers to everyone. We always enjoyed spending time with Wayne, aka Grandpa Horn. His watermelon were the BEST!!

He will always be in our fondest memories. He will be missed, but will be forever in your hearts -- that's where your memories are stored.

He loved his girls.

“ My friend, Virginia, I am so sorry that you lost your beloved remaining brother. But didn't he live a wonderfully full life? And was a blessing to so many. Your brother, Ule, sometimes drove our basketball bus and was always fun and helpful to all of us. I miss all the good Scott County friends who have gone on. God bless you, and Wayne's family on this day with sweet memories. With Love,
